Interested in the history of the First World War and what happened on Cannock Chase?

Why not take part in a new project 'Reaching Out Arms – The story of the First World War on Cannock Chase'

We are looking for Volunteer Researchers who are able to help us research further into the people who built, serviced and trained on the military camps. The role will include speaking to local people who may have memories or stories to share and taking part in delivering community history workshops and talks on the findings at the end of the project.

We are also looking for Volunteer Tour Guides who will deliver tours about the history of the First World War on Cannock Chase as part of a series of bus trips around the Chase. Full training and support will be provided for both roles.

The project will run from April – September 2016, if you would like to find out more about either role contact us by emailing cannockchaseww1@outlook.com or calling 01785 619186.

Or you can come along to our volunteer recruitment session and find out more about the project on Saturday 19th March at the John O'Leary Education Room, which is behind the Cannock Chase Visitor Centre at Marquis Drive, Hednesford, WS12 4PW anytime between 10am and 12pm.
